NEW MEXICO NEWS

Joe Reed, proprietor of the Lobby saloon at Tucumcari, was arrested a few days ago on the charge of allowing gambling in his resort, found guilty before a justice of the peace and fined $25 and costs, amounting to $40 in all. His attorney filed an appeal to the district court.

Today at Santa Fe an important meeting of the territorial board of water commissioners was held, with every member present. Final disposition was to be made of the intra-territorial application for the waters of the Gila. The appeals of Lyman K. McNett and of the Victoria Land and Cattle company were also to be decided and the appeal of Sidney Wilcox vs. M. B. May, of Carrizozo was heard.

Tucumcari now has a full fledged national guard company. At a meeting held at the Quay county seat last week, a company with forty-two members was organized. O. F. Elder was elected captain, Albert Littleton, first lieutenant, and Frank Donahue, second lieutenant. The company will be formally mustered in at an early date. It promises to be one of the strongest military organizations in the territory.

Game Warden Thomas Gable, who has returned to Santa Fe from Las Vegas, has secured the pledge of the Agua Fura company to put in fish runs at every one of its seven dams in the Gallinas above Las Vegas, something they have neglected to do thus far. Gable reports that an inspection of Trout Springs shows it to be an ideal location for a fish hatchery to be established by the territory, except that the suitable land above high water is too small in area to install a hatchery for the propagation of more than one kind of fish.

Quay county's normal institute opened with the largest opening roll in its history last Monday, when forty-five teachers were present. The attendance has been increasing daily since and it is thought that when all the county teachers begin to attend, the third week in this month, that the attendance will exceed one hundred, as against sixty-three last year. The work is under the supervision and personal attention of Prof. P. E. McClanahan, instructor of history at the University of North Dakota, assisted by Miss Sarah Ulmer. Students are present from all sections of the county, four members are from the new county of Curry and one from Guadalupe.

W. P. Bullock, sewer expert of Kansas City, who was employed by the Tucumcari town council to make a survey and estimate the cost of sewerage for that city, has completed his report. He shows that the sewer project is entirely feasible. Some changes have been made from the original plan, the most important thing being the outlet. Instead of emptying the sewerage into the lake east of town it will be conducted two miles north and emptied into the Parjarto. The sewer mains will be placed in the alleys instead of the streets, and the outlet will be fifteen inches instead of twelve, as was at first intended. The estimated cost is $78,800.

Intense Colicky Pains Relieved.

"For some years I suffered from intense colicky pains which would come on at times and from which I could find no relief," says I. S. Mason, of Beaver Dam, Ky. "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me by a friend. After taking a few doses of the remedy I was entirely relieved. That was four years ago and there has been no return of the symptoms since that time." This remedy is for sale by all dealers.

Cured Hay Fever and Summer Cold

A. S. Nusbaum, Batesville, Indiana, writes: "Last year I suffered for three months with a summer cold so distressing that it interfered with my business. I had many of the symptoms of hay fever, and a doctor's prescription did not reach my case, and I took several medicines which seemed only to aggravate it. Fortunately I insisted upon having Foley's Honey and Tar. It quickly cured me. My wife has since used Foley's Honey and Tar with the same success." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

RECORD IS A BRILLIANT ONE.

Virginia Military Institute Has a Deserved Reputation as Second to None Other.

"In all the professions and vocations of life," says a writer in the National Magazine, "the men trained at the Virginia Military Institute have won for themselves honorable distinction. The record of services rendered by her sons in the civil, Spanish and Philippine wars has established the reputation of the Virginia Military Institute upon an enduring foundation."

"In the regular army her graduates are found in numbers second only to those of West Point. The Marine corps and the navy also claim a large number of these finely-educated and disciplined young men. The institute has been officially recognized by the imperial government of China, a number of student cadets from the Flowery Kingdom having been sent to the institute."

"At the commencement exercises in June, 1908, the guest of honor, Maj. Gen. J. Franklin Bell, chief of staff of the United States army, addressing the cadets referred to the school as 'an institution which of its kind is second to none other in the world.'"

"On the anniversary of the conflict now known as New Market day at the institute the names of the cadets who fell in battle at that time are inserted in the company rolls, and as they are called by the sergeant a cadet of the first class steps to the front, salutes and reports: 'Died on the field of honor, sir.' Their names will ever live in the memory of the institute and of the commonwealth of Virginia."

"Five of the killed are buried in the cadet cemetery on the institute grounds, and on New Market day the battalion marches to this beautiful and secluded spot and there fires three volleys over the graves of the young heroes."

"One cannot leave this little cemetery without feelings of deepest emotion as he contemplates the sacrifices so gallantly made years ago by the youthful soldiers of Virginia. A more beautiful spot for a last resting place was never seen than this—in the quiet and peaceful valley of the Shenandoah."

Unhappy Lot of Chinese Doctors.

He patches health by contract. Each family from whom he receives a yearly stipend can command his services at will. Hence his interest is to keep down sickness among subscribers, especially since every day of illness means to him not only loss of time, but the deduction of a day's pay from his honorarium.

Comparatively secure is the lot of the ordinary Chinese practitioners, for whom the utmost penalty for a mischance is loss of income, as compared with that of the imperial court physician. To this high functionary, who attends the high officials also, inability to cure a patient is a matter of graver moment. Thus in November last the deaths of the empress dowager and the young emperor resulted in the degradation by two classes of five doctors, while the president of the imperial hospital and two assistants were prohibited altogether from following their profession.—Harper's Weekly.

Smuggling Chinese.

Australia is perturbed by the discoveries of Mr. Batchelor, the commonwealth minister for external affairs, who has been inquiring into the illegal influx of Chinese. There is a wealthy organization in China with agencies in all the principal Australian ports and with the connivance of ships' officers the systematic smuggling of Chinese into Australia has been carried on for a long time.

The ships trading between Hongkong and the Australian ports have been so cunningly supplied with false bulkheads, walls and floors that hiding rooms have been provided for 80 Chinese stowaways on a single voyage. Ship cooks have been secretly paid to supply the stowaways with food.

The trade is very profitable, as Australia is only a few days' steaming from China and many thousands of Mongolians are always ready to pay large sums and run all sorts of risks to get to the land of gold.

Jarred Queen Wilhelmina.

Queen Wilhelmina has a good ear for music, and once when an amateur musician was playing at the court she nearly disgraced herself from the point of view of royal discipline. His playing was anything but brilliant, and it so jarred on the young queen's ear that she hastily jumped up and left the room. Her courtiers remonstrated with her. "I know I ought not to have done what I did," she said. "I mean to be polite to my people, but I cannot be polite to wrong harmonies." Later she sent for the poor musician and begged his pardon, but it was a question whether her concession as a queen was great enough to offset the fact that this only seemed to make a bad matter worse.

Spread of the Cigarette.

Virginia cigarettes were introduced in 1876, and with the invention of machinery that can turn out 180,000 a day cigarettes became cheap and popular. The annual consumption of cigarettes in Great Britain now runs into billions, and of penny (two-cent) packets alone (each containing five) the weekly output is 60,000,000.

Cholera Infantum Cured.

"Something like two years ago my baby, which was then about a year old, was taken seriously ill with cholera infantum, vomiting and purging profusely," writes J. F. Dempsey of Dempsey, Ala. "I did what I could to relieve her but did her no good, and being very much alarmed about her went for a physician but failed to find one, so came back by Elder Bros. & Carter's store, and Mr. Elder recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle of it, went home as quickly as possible and gave the baby a dose of the remedy. It relieved her in fifteen minutes and soon cured her entirely." For sale by all dealers.
